Dawn French is to release a new novel called 'According to Yes' in time for the Christmas season. The book will be released simultaneously across the UK, Canada, New Zealand and Australia on 22nd October next month.

Dawn French´s third novel 'According to Yes' is described as “a brilliant comedy of manners,“ which follows the trials and tribulations of Rosie Kitto, an eccentric 38-year-old primary school teacher from England who is deployed to “˜The Foreign Land of the Very Wealthy´, otherwise known as Manhattan´s Upper East side, and the Wilder-Bingham family, where there are strict rules and codes of behaviour that Rosie must adhere to.

Dawn Roma French is an English actress, writer, and comedian, best known for starring in and writing for the comedy sketch show French and Saunders with comedy partner Jennifer Saunders and for playing the lead role as Geraldine Granger in the sitcom 'The Vicar of Dibley'. Dawn French has been nominated for seven BAFTA Awards and also won a Fellowship BAFTA with Jennifer Saunders.

Following publication of 'According to Yes' in October, Dawn will take to the London stage for a four week run of her critically acclaimed one woman show, '30 Million Minutes' which opens at the Vaudeville Theatre on 11th November. The show will explore French's career and her loves and losses.
